SECTION IV – READING

ADVICE FOR TRAVELLING

Travelling and holidays are wonderful, but we all know that they can bring some problems. We asked three people for their advice. Let's see what they say ...

Malia: In my opinion, when you visit a city, you should always download a map of the city transport as well as a street map. It's easier to check train and bus times on your phone. Also, make sure you check your hotel has everything you need. I went to a hotel that didn't have any parking last year. The place I parked in was really expensive so next time, I'm going to check that before I book a room.

Damian: Don't spend too much time looking for information about hotels and restaurants, or good places for shopping on the internet before your trip. I think it's better to look for places when you arrive. Last year, I went to Tokyo and I just walked around without a plan. I found some great restaurants and ate some delicious food. Remember to think carefully about what you are going to wear, too. I always take a jacket and a jumper because many places get cold at night, even in the summer.

Suzanna: I really enjoy planning holidays because I don't want to forget important things like my camera or a towel. I think everyone should make a list to help them remember what to take. A few years ago, I went on a walking holiday and I didn't take my boots. I spent two days trying to find some new ones. That wasn't a good way to spend my time.

A. Read the sentences below. Who says each one? Write M (Malia), D (Damian), or S (Suzanna). (5x2=10p)

- 1) S says it's important to make a list before travelling.
- 2) _____ says you should check hotel details before booking.
- 3) ...

BEING A WAITER

Many people think being a waiter is easy, but it can be a very difficult job. Here is waiter Mark Davis to tell us about it:

When did you get your first job as a waiter?

I started working as a waiter ten years ago. I worked in a small restaurant and now I am a waiter at one of the most expensive and biggest restaurants in the city.

What do you like about your job?

Being a waiter is exciting. No two days are the same. It is also a very busy job. I am never bored at work.

What qualities does a waiter need?

A waiter needs to do many things. A waiter should be relaxed and friendly to customers, but a restaurant is not a relaxed place really.

...

B. Read the sentences and put them in the correct order (1–5). (5x2=10p)

 2 A. He starts work and writes down the special meals.

 B. He serves customers and takes food to the kitchen.

 C. ...
