SECTION IV – READING

WHAT ARE THE DIFFERENCES?

A

I'm Clara and my parents' names are Chris and Evie. They are similar in some ways, but they're different in others. For example, their jobs are different. My mum is a police officer and my dad is a writer. They both like their jobs a lot.

B

My mum gets up early at 6.30 a.m. and then she starts work at 8.00 a.m. She finishes in the afternoon. She works in a big office in the city. My dad works from home. He gets up late and writes for two or three hours in the morning. Then he has lunch. He usually writes for an hour in the evening, too. He doesn't cook dinner because my mum loves cooking. She often cooks rice or pasta with some vegetables. She doesn't eat any meat because she's vegetarian. My dad isn't vegetarian so he sometimes cooks meat.

C

My parents like doing the same activities in their free time. They like playing sport, especially tennis. They play tennis with their friends twice a week. Also, they always go running on Sunday mornings. They also love listening to music, but they don't play music. My dad would like to learn the guitar in the future.

D

My parents' families are very different. My mum has a small family. She has one sister and three cousins. Her sister doesn't have any children so my mum doesn't have any nieces or nephews. They often meet up for lunch. They go to the same restaurant once a month on a Saturday.

E

My father's family is large. He has three brothers and one sister. He has lots of aunts, uncles, and cousins, too. Some of them live in different countries. My dad chats to them online at the weekends.

G. Read the text about family differences. Match the information (1-5) with the paragraphs (A-E) (5×3=15 pts)

- 1) What sports Chris and Evie like. (_C_)
- 2) The people in Evie's family. (___)
- 3) Where Clara's parents work. (___)
- 4) ...

H. Read the sentences below. Put them in the correct order to make a meaningful short text (5×3=15 pts)

1)

- A. Then he takes the bus to work.
- B. Tom gets up at 7 o'clock every morning.
- C. He has a shower and gets dressed.
- D. He eats breakfast with his family.

B / C / D / A

2)

- A. People wear coats and scarves.
- B. The wind is strong and the days are short.
- C. It often rains in winter.
- D. The temperature is usually very low.

3) ...
